1. How the cost for work resources is calculated?

- Multiplying its standard hourly rate with the hours of effort
- Multiplying its standard hourly rate with the hours of effort along with the cost per use
- Multiplying its standard unit rate with the number of units
- Simply entering the cost per use of the work resource for every task that uses the resource

2. Simply entering the cost per use of the work resource for every task that uses the resource

- Task Usage
- Budget Usage
- Budget Work
- Resource Usage

3. Calendars can be shared across all projects using the feature in MS Project 2010.

- Sharing
- Organizer
- Control Center
- Custom Control

4. _____ is the default view that is displayed on opening an MS Project file.

- Resource view
- Task view
- Design view
- Project view

5. The first step after creating a project file is

- Defining summary tasks
- Entering major tasks and subtasks
- Crating a WBS
- Establishing project information

6. Which of the following are editions of MS Project 2010?

- MS Project Standalone 2010
- MS Project Standard 2010
- MS Project Commercial 2010
- MS Project Professional 2010